"History will one day have its say. It will not be the history taught in the United Nations, Washington, Paris, or Brussels, however, but the history taught in the countries that have rid themselves of colonialism and its puppets. Africa will write its own history, and both north and south of the Sahara it will be a history full of glory and dignity."

From Patrice Lumumba's farewell letter to his wife

From the genocidal Trans-Atlantic Slave trade to the whole sale theft of our land and resources, to the murder of the Congo's 1st Prime Minister, Patrice Lumumba, the European criminal enterprise responsible for these crimes against humanity must be held accountable and must pay.
